AN INCIDENT .- Sitting musingly in our office, last evening, sadly in want of a fresh local item, our "brown study" was suddenly interrupted by the apparition of a familiar face .-Our friend looked so smiling, that we inquired what "streak of good luck" he had lately en-

"Why, this morning," said he, "I stepped to a carriage to speak to a lady acquaintance from the country, and found her surrounded by bundles of dry goods, which she opened, exhibiting shawls, dress patterns, etc., for the girls, and at No. 20 Town street, Walcutt's buildingcloth for costs, vesting, etc., for the boys. She kept me a full half hour, expatiating with true feminine volubility upon the quality and price of the goods, and the fine bargains she had "'And where, Madam,' said I, 'did you obtain such rare bargains?'

"At HEADLY, EBERLY & RICHARDS'S,' she re sponded, glancing at her acquisitions with evident heart-felt satisfaction.

"Leaving the carriage, I encountered a genwinter clothing he had made this morning .- everywhere. Mrs. ----, who is a good judge in such matters, had assured him that he had never done so well before in his life. 'And where,' said I auxiously, 'did you meet with such a chance, in these hard times?' 'At HEADLY, EBERLY & RICHARDS's,' returned be."

"This scene," continued our friend, "to cut a long story short, was repeated in the course of the forenoon three several times. At last, I concluded to go and try HEADLY, ERRRLY & RICHARDS myself."

"A very sensible conclusion," said we, thoughtfully.

"I found it so," replied our friend, exultingly, "and I advise you-to do likewise."

THE WEBS SISTERS AT ARMONY HALL .- The WEED Slaters were greeted with a full house last evening. The performances, for their variety and excellence, were exquisite. The singriety and excellence, were exquisite. The singing was capital. Every one admired the grace, case and naturalness with which the young ladies passed from one character to another, representing each to the life, and eliciting from the audience spontaneous applause and merriment. It would be difficult to devise a more chaste, pleasant and amusing entertainment. The sisters perform again to-night at Armory Hall. We trust their efforts to please and amuse will be duly appreciated, and the Hall crowded again this evening. It will be prudent in those desiring convenient seats to secure them early.

MISSIONARY ANNIVERSARY .- The anniversary of the Missionary Society of the Christian (Campbellite) Church commenced at Cincinnati on Tuesday evening. Addresses were made by several different Elders. The principal one was delivered by Elder ALEXANDER CAMPBELL, President of the Society, the most widely known and influential minister in the connection. He is now more than seventy years of age, and spoke with spirit and energy for one who has devoted so many years to active labors.

The session of the Society was continued

THE SEVENTH .- The Seventh Ohio Regiment. Col. TYLER, which has been recently at Gauley, has moved to Charleston. Col. TYLER succeeds Col. J. V. Gurnaus, of the First Kentucky, as commander of the post at the latter place.

A languid eye, and a waxy, bloodless complexion may go begging for admiration. The "elegant stoop" in the shoulders, formerly considered so aristocratic, has miraculously disappeared. All this sounds fine. We hope it has the merit of being true.

CONTRIBUTIONS FOR THE SOLDIERS -The folowing articles were contributed, on Tuesday light. last, for the benefit of the soldiers, by various persons, as certified to by the Quartermaster-General: 207 woolen blankets, 349 pair woolen socks, 79 pair woolen drawers, 71 woolen shirts, 29 (bed) comforts, 39 (neck) comforts, 3 great coats, 25 pair mittens, 6 pair wristlets, 1 oil cloth blanket.

WINTER IS NEAR .- We had yesterday an as surance that winter is not far off. It was so cold that warm clothing and warm fires became a necessity. The sun is rapidly receding toward his southern limit, and we shall soon have the short days and long nights of December. Are we all prepared for the winter of the year, and the winter of life ?

The report made by Adjutant General Thomas of his recent examination into the administration of the Department of the West by General Fremont, was this morning considered in full Cabinet meeting.

With the reluctance which hesitates to injure a distinguished man and wound and disappoint the friends whom a popular leader gathers in his career, all the members of the Cabinet slowly pronounced their judgment that the in-terest of Missouri and of the Union required that General Fremont should be superseded in his command by Major-General Hunter. The order to this effect will be lexued to-morrow. The President was greatly afflicted by the death of Col. Baker.

[Special to the Herald. ] The latest news to-night is that the whole of Stone's column had crossed the Potomac and is in full pursuit of the enemy, and that Genera Banks had reached the banks of the river and would speedily follow and support Stone. .

Trustworthy information received this morn ing from Fairfax Court House states that only the rebel pickets are present at that place. A small force, however, is stationed at German-town, a mile and a half distant.

[Special to the Post.] Washington, Oct. 23 .- The sudden stoppage of navigation on the Potomac has produced a commotion among shipping at Mathias Point, and their fate is yet uncertain. It is believed the Government will speedily take effective measures for clearing away the obstacles, to permit the free passage of vessels in the river there.

General Halleck is now on his way to Wash-

Gen. Scott's health is much impaired. Advanced age and severe bodily infirmities begin to tell upon him.

The funeral of Col. Baker will take place in Facts are Stubbern Things! Hear what the Philadelphia correspondent says in the Commonwealth," Winnington, Delaware, 9th of April,

"Common wealth," Wilmington, Delaware, 9th of April, 1859:

"An English gentleman, formerly connected with the British Army, and who styles himself the 'indian Botanic Physician' has of late gained an extensive reputation here by his skill in curing all manner of complaints. Some of his patients I have conversed with, and they pronounce his remedies and mode of treatment as very superior. Some have been restored as if by magic. The medicine he uses is distilled by himself from various harts possessing rare curative properties.

"While sating in the army he devoted his leisure moments to a thorough study of the effects produced by certain medicinal roots and heris on all manner of diseases. It seems he has found a sure and speedy remedy for all the 'ilis that flesh is heir to.' His practice is already extensive and is daily increasing. In the complaints to which Females are subjected, he has no equal as a large number here have testified that they owe not only their precent good health, but their lives, to the skill of this Indian Botanic Physician."
